

CHALLENGE & CHANGE IN SOCIETY 12
HSB4U
ISP

Mark Value:	Installment Work (2 meetings)	= 6%
	Written Product	= 15%
	Oral Presentation	= 4%

Guidelines:

- Use the M.L.A. format
- 8 - 10 typed pages (2000 - 2250 words).
- You must have a clear thesis.
- Footnotes, endnotes or work cited must be used.
- All rough work must be submitted with the final product (notes & drafts).
- You must keep a copy of your final paper.
- Bibliography must consist of 8 sources (primary & secondary). Only 3 Internet sources.
- No subheadings in the essay.

Dates to Remember: Last day to change topics - Friday, September 27
Proposal - Monday, September 30
I.S.P. Meeting - Monday, October 21 (first set of research notes).
I.S.P. Meeting - Monday, November 11 (second set of research notes and the draft of the introductory page.)
I.S.P. is Due - Monday, November 25
Oral Presentations Begin - Monday, November 25

INDEPENDENT STUDY PROPOSAL:

- Dysfunctional families: then and now.
- Aging and the elderly in Western and Non-Western societies: a comparison
- Parenting skills: a comparison of then and now
- The patriarchal family in Western culture: a feminist critique
- Domestic violence: a cultural comparison (3)
- Arranged marriages and traditional marriages: a comparison
- Prejudice and discrimination in Canada: then and now
- The sexual revolution's immediate and long - term impact on Western culture and mores
- The economic and social impact of our rapidly growing aging population
- Widowhood: a male and female perspective.
- Is there still a need for a Women's Movement in Western culture?
- Globalization is a threat to cultural identity?
- How the social media has impacted the family dynamic
- A comparison of the Western and non-Western views of a world that is becoming more-and-more secular.
- How Britain's Industrial Revolution of the nineteenth century transformed its society, as well as, the world.
- Western technology has always been and still remains the main threat to the global environment?
- Parenting: a cultural comparison (3)
- Karl Marx's deterministic view of history: a reassessment

TORONTO
PREP SCHOOL

Annotated Bibliography: _____

